

HERB PHARM'S ONLINE HERBAL EDUCATION MODULES

NEW!

Meeting the Evolving Product Education Needs of our Customers

Herb Pharm's online learning platform will host a series of self-paced, product-oriented learning modules designed to offer a flexible learning experience for you and your staff. "Students" can study these web-based, interactive learning modules whenever they like, and at whatever pace they choose.

ABOUT THE LEARNING MODULES

- Modules are taught through an easy-to-use browser-based interface.
- Each module takes approximately 20-40 minutes to complete and will consist of core learning materials.
- Optional resources will be offered to allow you to progress beyond the core topics.
- Each content section has a quiz to gauge learner retention and understanding.
- All answers are scored instantly with feedback to ensure users understand why a particular answer is correct or incorrect.
- Product education can be coordinated with specific product promotions.
- Convenient approach for training new staff, and refreshing product knowledge of long-term staff.
- A consistent standard of product training can be achieved.
